OBJECTIVES

I'm a final year student, majoring in Electronic Communication at Technological University (Myitkyina). But I'm very interested in web development and I want to be a full stack developer. So, I studied HTML, CSS, etc., by myself. I'll try my best to accomplish the excellent result by applying my skills. I have the ability to work independently or as a part of a team. Don't worry about learning a new language, I'm a fast learner. And willing to face new challenges and enjoy working under pressure in time. I'm a motivated and good communicable person.
